

b2b meetings at EMO Hannover September 16 to 21, 2019

Meet your future business partners!

EMO Hannover is the world's premier trade fair for the metalworking industry. It is a key showcase for innovations and an essential driver of global production technology.

Handwerk International Baden-Württemberg and Enterprise Europe Network (EEN) are once again organising the international b2b matchmaking event at the EMO trade fair in Hannover. With decisionmakers coming together from around the world, EMO is the place to be for all players in the metalworking industry. The last EEN matchmaking event at EMO in 2017 attracted more than 298 participants from 25 countries.

Take this opportunity and meet future business and cooperation partners at pre-organised appointments.

Your advantage: b2b participants receive a free entry ticket to the trade fair.
